Business Men Meet To-Day.

The Business Men's Club has been called to meet to-day at 2 o'clock to act upon a recommendation of its board of directors indorsing a railroad to Urbanna. A vigorous canvass has been made by attorneys employed by the opposition, in an effort to get the club to rescind the action taken by its board. Similar efforts were made in the case of the Chamber of Commerce, without success, T. Ashby Wickham and Maurice A. Powers having been formally notified yesterday in a letter from Secretary R. A. Dunlop that the board of the chamber had given 'unqualified indorsement to the ordinance," and that "no further action was contemplated or necessary."

DAILY PUZZLES EICHELBERGER CAN ELECTION OF HIBBEN IS POPULAR ACTION

Professor of Logic and Philosophy Chosen to Succeed Wilson as Head of Princeton University.

Princeton, N. J., January 11.—John Grier Hibben, Ph. D., L. L. D., professor of logic and Li. D., properince of professor of the institution by the unanimous vote of the trustees. He unanimous vote of the trustees. He succeeds Woodrow Wilson, who resigned on October 29, 1810, to acrept the Democratic nomination for Governor of New Jersey. Dr. Hibben is fifty-one years old.

The election of Dr. Hibben to head the famous old institution was a most popular action and was commended on the presidency of the presiden clevation to the presidency.

It is said that claborate arrangements will be made for his inauguration. Dr. Hibben later in the day said that he accepted the prosidency of Princeton with a feeling of gratitude as well as one of deep responsibility.

Immediately after his election Dr. Hibben was summoned before the trustes in Chancellor Green's library, where he took the oath of office.

The new president was graduated from Princeton in 1882 and since 1891 has been a member of the faculty. Ha has for years been a prominent educator and writer of philosophy and is at present president of the American Philosophical Society and editor in chief of the International Series of Philosophical Monographs. He has taken a prominent part in the affairs of Princeton. Dr. Hibben was born in Peoria, Ill., in 1861.

in Peoria, ill., in 1861.

The popularity of Princeton's new president was amply demonstrated by the flood of messages and congratulations that were sent to Dr. Hibben from all parts of the country and by a huge under-graduate celebration to-night, which ended at Dr. Hibben's house, where the new head of the university addressed them. Educators throughout the country wired their congratulations to him, and the Daily Princetonian will publish to-morrow morning appreciations of Dr. Hibben from the presidents of three of Princeton's largest sister universities. These are Presidents Lowell, of Harvard; Haddey, of Yale, and Butler, of Columbia.

Governer Wandrey Wilson who are Dr. Hibben was elected at the regular January meeting of the trustees, who had been endeavoring for four months to select a successor to Dr. Wilson. And the select a successor to Dr. Wilson.

CONFERENCE CALL ISSUED

Progressive Republicans Will Get Together in Springfield.

Chicago, January 11.—A call was issued here for a conference of Progressive Republicans to meet in Springfield, Ill., January 27, "to consider ways and means for advancing the cause of Frogressive Republicanism." The call was signed by Charles I; Merriam and Medil McCormick, of Chi-

Merriam and Medil McCormick, of Chi-cago, among others. It sets out that, the nation faces a political criefs, and scores "reactionary leaders." It voices opposition to the nomination of Presis-dent Taft and Governor Deneen. Co-operation of all those who believe in the constructive principles of Progressive Republicanism, "Whether they be supporters of Robert M. La Poliettie or Theodora Roosevelt." is asked.
